I will preface my comments by saying that I hold no crystal ball, am not psychic, and cannot predict the timing of any collapse, but I can see that everything going on today screams out loud that this entire system is not only failing, but has eclipsed any realm of sanity. This country and the world have used every tool possible to extend the bubbles, to expand the wealth of the very few, to impoverish the entirety of the masses, to create democide on a large scale, and to control all through psychological manipulation, economic turmoil, and technocratic domination. Considering the latter, AI, financial digitization, digital IDs, and digital currency are the greatest risk, and in my opinion, the imminent plan. The State (ruling class) is the hammer, and society is the nail.

I hesitate to say this, but a societal and economic collapse (reset) is inevitable, as is a complete reset of societal norms. I hesitate not because I think it uncertain, but because this assured outcome has been pushed down the road on multiple occasions, the latest being the 2008 financial 'crisis.' Some would claim that the fake 'covid pandemic' was in fact meant to be the reset impetus, but that was just a test to see how gullible and obedient the indoctrinated, spineless, and indifferent herd could actually be; and you all know the answer to that query.

First and foremost, the implementation of digital ID is moving astoundingly fast, not just in the U.S., but in every developed, and many underdeveloped countries. This is being heavily promulgated by such organizations as the UN, the Gates Foundation, Blackrock, the World Bank, Palantir, the tech billionaires, Trump in the U.S., and most every government globally. It is already in place in many countries, and expanding exponentially, with 27 members of the EU alone just recently signing on to this mandatory and tyrannical ID system. At this point, it seems to be impossible to avoid, and all use of 'public' and private services, all services, travel, jobs, financial accounts, etc., will soon be off limits to any who do not have the State sanctioned digital ID and biometric 'papers.' All this will be made to look voluntary, mainly because most will comply due to absolute fear of being ostracized and also, just sheer cowardice and stupidity. As I have mentioned many times over, when digital ID is in place and enforced, that will be the end of any and all freedom.

Currently Trump, and his “Department of War,” is still supporting genocidal war by the evil Israel, he is still funding and arming Ukraine, he is threatening hot war in Venezuela, and has stated his intent to attack Nigeria. Both Venezuela and Nigeria are resource rich countries, and this should be understood up front, because it is not an accident. Regime change, while denied by the lying Trump, is always in play. Trump also will continue to blame and threaten Russia and China, but it is imperative to understand that in most cases, all the powerful countries, including Russia, China, the U.S., and others, are actually working together toward the exact same end; that being a centralized global conglomerate that has full technocratic control.

There is still the ruse of a government shutdown here in the U.S., although the government never shuts down in reality. Vital services, recreation, travel, food availability and distribution, and anything that will upset the plebiscites and drive them toward civil unrest, is what is sought by the governing forces, both left and right, as neither gives a shit about any of you. At this moment, the news is focused on (promoting) the SNAP (food stamps) situation, which is causing exactly what was desired by the ruling class. With over 50 million people on this welfare, causing unrest and violence is much easier to accomplish, especially when people need food for themselves and their families. A perfect storm for both the democrat and republican scum. The longer this is allowed by both sides to go on, the more chance there is for violence, which leads only to even more division. This is just divide and conquer by deliberate rationing of food by government.

In the meantime, Trump’s ICE agents of horror and death, are terrorizing people, including American citizens, all without any due process or legitimate charges of criminal behavior. This has purposely led to a martial law situation in much of the country, something that can only lend itself to a larger scale of military rule at every turn. These goons are insane, and without any mercy whatsoever. They are nothing more than masked government thugs, criminals, who have been turned loose and given carte blanche powers with little or no oversight.

Jobs are being eliminated by the tens of thousands all at once. It is most evident in the tech industries, but will filter down to all others in the not too distant future. Job cuts are the highest in decades, but in the scheme of things, they have just begun. Government job loss numbers are greatly underreported, but still increasing dramatically. Just in September alone, the tech industry cut well over 33,000 jobs, with many more to come. Total job losses for October, according to government figures, were 153,000 plus, a 183% increase from September, and 175% increase from one year ago.

Just in the last few days, the Federal Reserve flooded banks with $125 billion injection, and this is just the beginning, as banks are set to fail in large numbers. The massive debt is still rising at an out-of-control pace. This is not even taking into account the huge multi-quadrillion (1,000 trillion) dollar derivative market, nor is it assuming the massive increase of debt. To put this into context, consider that this makes the 2008 disaster look minor in comparison. Think about what that means when the system comes down. It will be a bloodbath.

While all this and so much more is going on, the most evil and murderous Zionist Israel is still slaughtering mostly children in Gaza, and is also bombing (with American weapons paid for by you) Lebanon daily as well. Genocide is now seemingly accepted as normal, and that is a ominous sign of the complete breakdown of a 'moral' society. Democide is next, including government pressure to kill off by assisted suicide as many as possible. Canada is a prime example of this unholy attempt to depopulate in order to eliminate those it considers "useless eaters." It is called their MAiD program.

Household debt is now just shy of $19 trillion, with mass monetary inflation imminent, and much higher prices on all goods and services continuing to escalate. It is past time to prepare, but prepare you must if you expect to survive this AI insanity and the coming financial implosion. Those who have capital in this corrupt and failing system should think about putting all assets you can under your direct control, so as to have the ability to sustain yourself and family once this reset of economies takes place.
